New special Alitalia flights, in collaboration with the Crisis Unit of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and more connections have been scheduled in order to facilitate the return to Italy of thousands of compatriots, including many students.

According to the mission of ensuring an essential public service, Alitalia has increased the number of scheduled flights to five a day from London Heathrow to meet the needs of those who wish to return from the United Kingdom.

From Brussels, Alitalia has scheduled two flights per day to meet the needs of those in Holland, after the blockade of services on Amsterdam.

Also the connections from Paris increased to twice a day.

Tickets Sale of these flights is available on all sales channels.

Organization of special flights continues to facilitate the repatriation of thousands of compatriots from those countries to which normal scheduled services can no longer be operated, due to the restrictions imposed on air traffic to and from Italy.

The Company is always in contact with the Foreign Ministry's Crisis Unit to schedule new flights, both for passengers and goods.

Visit Alitalia Connect for flight details and any further updates.

Alitalia requires passengers to wear a protective mask to be worn on board before boarding the plane.

It will therefore be possible to refuse boarding to the passenger who arrives at the boarding without an individual protection device.

It's also mandatory for passengers to communicate their entry into Italy to the Prevention Department of the Local Health Authority (Local Health Authority).
